

QCheck provides the confidence of knowing for sure who your customer is in terms of their identity, their income and their employment.

By accessing the Social Security Administration's database, social security numbers can be accurately authenticated. Qcheck verifies your borrower's income by evaluating their IRS records, tax information, W2 and 1009 forms. And by using public / private databases along with telephone interviews, your borrower's employment is confirmed.

Summary and detailed reports are provided and can be accessed online. In addition, recordings of telephone interviews can also be made available.

If you need to be certain when it comes to the identity and financial capacity of your borrower, QCheck is your go-to service provider.

QCheck is a subsidiary of Quality Mortgage Services and is your one stop shop for all your mortgage compliance and quality control resources. For more information, call toll free at 800.939.5383 or visit us on the web at qcmortgage.com.
